DESCRIPTION

For over ten decades, the island community of Coronado has followed its spring tradition of refurbishing gardens throughout the town and staging Southern California's premier flower show.

MISSION

The Coronado Floral Association (CFA) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit community service organization dedicated to enriching lives through education in, and showcasing of, flowers, plants, and gardens. Specifically we:

- Encourage and foster knowledge of horticulture.
- Promote the love and use of flowers.
- Encourage community beautification (including homes, schools, and public grounds).
- Produce the Annual Coronado Flower Show (in partnership with the City of Coronado).

We are a community united in the continued beautification of Coronado.

We encourage everyone interested in the Flower Show and in the beautification of homes and gardens through the use of plants and flowers to join the Coronado Floral Association

The Coronado Junior Arts League (CJAL) is a nonprofit organization recognized under the IRS code 501(c)(3), embodying decades of collective expertise in the performing arts domain. CJAL was established in 2023 responding to a critical gap in performing arts education for younger audiences in Coronado. CJAL was conceived to meet this demand, aiming to provide young aspiring artists with quality education and exceptional performance experiences.

Our mission is to establish a center of excellence for youth theater and performing arts, leveraging the talents of our award-winning actors, directors, musicians, and technical staff to educate and inspire Coronado's youth. We are dedicated to making musical theater an integral, accessible part of the community, fostering wider engagement and a deeper appreciation for the arts. Through partnerships with the City of Coronado, Coronado Playhouse, Coronado School of the Arts (CoSA), and deep ties to leading professionals in musical theater, film, and the arts across the Western United States, we aim to elevate the quality of local arts offering and contribute to the development of a thriving youth arts ecosystem that encourages creativity, excellence, and joy.

Musica Vitale is a professional ensemble with a 300-year history of performing choral and vocal works. Focused on Romantic and Contemporary music, it emphasizes emotional expression. Comprising talented San Diego singers, the group excels in both delicate and rich performances, such as Schumann's 'Romanzen und Balladen' and Rachmaninov's Vespers. Founded in 2005 after a benefit concert for Hurricane Katrina victims, Musica Vitale has since become a premier ensemble in San Diego, captivating a broad audience.

The ensemble's mission is to revive and rediscover neglected repertoire of the Classical, Romantic, and post-Romantic eras, maintaining the highest artistic standards, preserving the heritage of vocal chamber music, and bringing enrichment to the community through public performances, educational school programs and outreach to groups of limited accessibility, such as Senior Homes.
